Owing to a large amount of legal matter coming in at the last hour we are unable to give space to a more extended notice of our political visitors.

J. N. Cohenour, republican candidate for sheriff, has disposed of his business in Gold Road and with his wife is now a resident of Kingman. He will probably engage in business in this town.

There are 825 names on the great register, as against 803 two years ago. It is stated that many people have neglected to register, which accounts for the small increase in registrations.

The October term of the district court was one of the shortest on record, the principal business of the term being completed in two days. The grand jury found only four indictments and ignored one. Two criminals were sent to the pen for two and three years.

J. H. Robertson, a mining man of Georgetown, Colorado, arrived in Kingman Wednesday last and departed yesterday for Chloride. Mr. Robertson is interested in mining in this county, being a part owner in the Mocking Bird mine. He will make an examination of property and will return home tomorrow evening.

Hon. Patsy Collins came up from the old Moss camp last Saturday evening and will remain in Kingman until after election. Patsy Collins is known to all the old timers of this county as one of the warmest hearted men in the west, and he was warmly greeted by the old boys here. He wants it distinctly understood that he is strongly in favor of the retention of the eight-hour law on our statute books.

Democrats Ratify.

Last Wednesday evening the democrats of Kingman got up an impromptu ratification at Elk Hall and drew a good crowd. Hon. Thomas G. Norris, of Prescott, and Hon. H. L. Dickson, of Kingman, addressed the people. Mr. Dickson made a most favorable impression and was warmly congratulated at the end of his address. Mr. Norris reviewed the statehood proposition and referred to the local candidates in a pleasing vein. The two speakers received considerable applause throughout the speaking.

The Emporium has a handsome line of samples of dress patterns which the ladies of Kingman and vicinity are invited to examine.

Republican Ratification.

Last Monday Hon. B. A. Fowler, republican candidate for delegate to congress arrived in Kingman and was met at the depot by a large number of local republicans. The next evening a grand ratification took place at Elk Hall, that spacious edifice being filled to the doors by an enthusiastic crowd of people from all parts of the county. Mr. Fowler was introduced by Chairman H. W. Kemper and immediately proceeded to state his position on the various matters just now agitating the territory. His address was clear and logical and made a remarkably favorable impression on the people of this county.

Owing to the tieup of the railroad he was unable to get to Kingman Sunday night, as scheduled, and in consequence was unable to reach Gold Road Monday evening. A circular letter was sent to the voters of the big gold camp explaining his failure to meet and address them Monday night.

Mr. Fowler is a bright business man and makes no attempt at oratory, but nevertheless he makes his points clear and convincing.

Major W. A. Mensch reports the striking of fourteen inches of splendid ore in the Copper President mine, of the Enterprise group, at a depth of forty feet, and three and one-half feet of ore in the Carbonate King at a depth of eighty feet. The ore shows high in copper and lead and it is thought that development will show up the greatest bodies of ore in the mountain. Work has been in progress on these mines for some time past and miners working there believe they are just getting into the main ore body of the group.

Dr. J. S. Perkins, superintendent in charge of the Truxton Canyon Indian school, was in Kingman on business several days this week.

Judge James Carroll, of Needles, was in Kingman Thursday last on his way to New York.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Kingman office: Helen Aldison, E. G. Bowen, Mrs. E. Cogner, Mrs. B. Sherman, Miss Grace Tarbell, Pat Driscoll 5, B. D. Nichols, Oscar Kern, Santiago Mato 2.

The Best Doctor.

The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c, 1$, at H. H. Watkins.
